Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments (see instructions)

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:
The Cleveland Foundation's primary purpose is to enhance the quality of life for all citizens of Greater Cleveland, now and for generations to come, by building community endowment, addressing needs through grantmaking and providing leadership on key community issues.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? . . . . . ☐ Yes ☑ No
If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? . . . . . ☐ Yes ☑ No
If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the exempt purpose achievements for each of the organization's three largest program services by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code: _____) (Expenses $ 72,578,519 including grants of $ 72,578,519) (Revenue $ 1,278,546)
The Cleveland Foundation's largest program is grant making. The Foundation works to respond to vital community needs in Greater Cleveland while also being responsive to emerging charitable opportunities by conducting a substantial grant making program that funds a wide range of organizations in Greater Cleveland. Three areas of grant making that received major attention in 2008 were strengthening Cleveland's neighborhoods, assisting low income people, and improving educational attainment in the region. In terms of strengthening neighborhoods, the Foundation supported initiatives to address the foreclosure issue, which began in Cleveland in early 2008, by funding a number of grants to a variety of different organizations, including neighborhood-based organizations that provided foreclosure and financial counseling. In terms of assisting low income people, a major focus of the Foundation's grant making was improving access to health care for the uninsured through strengthening and expanding the region's safety net providers as the number of people without health insurance increased. In terms of improving educational attainment, the Foundation provided grant funds to organizations designed to improve school performance in the city of Cleveland and college access.

4b (Code: _____) (Expenses $ _____ including grants of $ _____) (Revenue $ _____)

4c (Code: _____) (Expenses $ _____ including grants of $ _____) (Revenue $ _____)

4d Other program services. (Describe in Schedule O.)

The Cleveland Foundation requires grant recipients to submit scheduled narrative and financial progress reports on activity related to the grant on the Foundation's grant reporting forms, as scheduled in their grant award letter. Grant reports are an integral part of our monitoring and evaluation process. The reports are reviewed by Foundation staff who follow-up if there are questions or issues identified by this review. We have found these forms serve as a valuable learning tool for Foundation staff and the grantee organization. A closing evaluation is performed once the final report is complete.

In 2008, one of the organization's officers participated in a Supplement Executive Retirement Plan ("SERP"). The Executive Director and any other participant in the organization's Retirement Plan (a tax-qualified §403(b) plan covering a broad range of employees) designated by the Board of Directors is eligible for benefits under the SERP. The purpose of the SERP is to provide benefits to SERP participants on the same basis as are provided to all employees under the Retirement Plan in those situations where amounts allocated under the Retirement Plan are limited by rules applicable to the §403(b) plan (resulting in a "prevented allocation"). Each year an amount equal to 105.5% of the SERP participant's prevented allocation is credited to his account under the SERP. Because this amount is immediately vested and taxable, a partial distribution is made to the participant as necessary for payment of current taxes. Following retirement, death, or other termination of employment, the remaining SERP account (with earnings credited at a rate determined with reference to the Retirement Plan) is distributed to the participant in two installments. No funds are set aside for payment of SERP benefits; it is completely unfunded and each participant is an unsecured creditor of the organization.

Open to Public Inspection

Name of the organization: The Cleveland Foundation

Employer identification number: 34 0714588

Line K:

The Cleveland Foundation is a community foundation comprised of multiple trusts and Ohio nonprofit corporations, all of which are treated as one tax exempt charity for federal tax purposes.

Core Form 990, Part IV, Line 26:

The Cleveland Foundation did not make a loan to any current or former officer, director, trustee, key employee, highly compensated employee, or any disqualified person. However, The Cleveland Foundation holds a note from a closely held corporation, resulting from a charitable contribution of stock in this corporation 13 years ago. In 2004, an individual, who directly or indirectly owns more than 35% of this corporation's stock, was appointed to The Cleveland Foundation's Board of Directors by a third party appointing authority unrelated to The Cleveland Foundation, i.e., the Chief Judge of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio. (By its charter, various members of the Board of Directors of The Cleveland Foundation are appointed by designated public and civic official appointing authorities.) The corporation that is the obligor on the note resulting from the charitable contribution is a disqualified person with respect to The Cleveland Foundation because of its relationship to the individual appointed by a third party as a Director of The Cleveland Foundation. Therefore, as a result of this individual's appointment as a Director, but not by any act by The Cleveland Foundation to make a loan, the Foundation now holds a note from a disqualified person.

Core Form: Part V, Lines 4a and b:

The Cleveland Foundation has noted in the Core Form 990, Part V, Lines 4a and 4b, that it has an interest in or signature authority over a financial account in a foreign country based on the Internal Revenue Service's current position regarding this issue. The Internal Revenue Service announced in IRS Notice 2009-62 that it is reconsidering whether organizations that have only a financial interest in, or signature authority over, a foreign financial account in which the assets are held in a commingled fund will be considered to have the requisite interest in a foreign financial account to require reporting on the Form 990, Part V, Lines 4a and b, or on Form TD F 90-22.1. The Foundation's only interest in a foreign financial account is precisely the interest the IRS is reconsidering for treatment as other than a foreign financial account for reporting purposes. Until the IRS issues its guidance, the Foundation is reporting this interest as an interest in a foreign financial account.

Name of the organization: The Cleveland Foundation

Employer identification number: 34 0714588

Core Form: Part V, Line 4b:

The name of each foreign country is the Cayman Islands, Ireland, Canada and Netherland Antilles.

Core Form: Part VI, Line 2:

Two of The Cleveland Foundation's Directors and Distribution Committee Members, Frederick Nance and Frank Sullivan, have a business relationship with each other.

Core Form: Part VI, Line 6:

The Cleveland Foundation is a community foundation comprised of multiple trusts and Ohio nonprofit corporations, all of which are treated as one tax exempt charity for federal tax purposes. The nonprofit corporations that are part of The Cleveland Foundation each have members who are the same individuals who from time to time are serving as directors of those organizations. The members have a right under their respective nonprofit corporation's governing instruments and under Ohio Nonprofit Corporation Law to participate in the nonprofit corporation's governance.

Core Form: Part VI, Line 7a:

The Cleveland Foundation is a community foundation comprised of multiple trusts and Ohio nonprofit corporations, all of which are treated as one tax exempt charity for federal tax purposes. Although the members of the nonprofit corporations that are a part of The Cleveland Foundation are assigned the authority to elect the directors of the nonprofit corporations, these directors must be the same individuals appointed from time to time to serve as Distribution Committee members under some of the trusts that are a part of The Cleveland Foundation.

Core Form: Part VI, Line 10:

Management prepares the Form 990, then reviews the prepared Form 990 with its outside auditors and its outside counsel. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors then meets to conduct a thorough review of the Form 990 and all schedules. Members of the organization's management, representatives of its outside auditors, and its outside legal counsel are all present at the Audit Committee meeting. Following the meeting, the return is finalized and filed with the IRS.

Core Form: Part VI, Line 12c:

The Cleveland Foundation maintains a Conflict of Interest Policy governing the participation of the Foundation's Members, Directors, Committee members, Distribution Committee members (collectively "Directors") and Officers in matters in which they may have a conflict of interest. The Cleveland Foundation maintains another Conflict of Interest Policy governing employees and staff. The Conflict of Interest Policy for Directors and Officers requires an annual disclosure statement listing potential conflicts by each of the Foundation Directors and Officers. These disclosure statements are kept by the Foundation's Corporate Secretary. Before each meeting, using the annual disclosure statements, the Corporate Secretary provides to all Directors and Officers a list of the conflicts presented at that meeting based on the matters set on the meeting's agenda. Directors and Officers are also asked at the meeting to report any new potential conflicts in addition to those identified by the Corporate Secretary.

Except in the limited case noted below, Directors and Officers with a conflict of interest under the Foundation's policy, must: (i) Disclose their potential conflict of interest at the meeting (this is often already done by the Corporate Secretary); (ii) Present any relevant information concerning the matter involving the conflict, if requested; and (iii) Recuse themselves from the meeting for the discussion and vote on the matter presenting the conflict. In limited cases involving the approval of grant distributions by the Foundation where Directors or Officers have certain limited potential conflicts of interest with a proposed grant recipient, the Directors or Officers must: (i) Disclose their potential conflict of interest at the meeting (this is often already done by the Corporate Secretary); and (ii) abstain from voting on the matter.

In addition to the foregoing, under the Foundation's Conflict of Interest Policy, no organization with which any Director or Officer is connected , directly or indirectly through family, business, or investment, may receive any special consideration whatsoever by the Foundation for such organization's grant application, and no variation in the Foundation's procedures or standards for processing grants shall be permitted for such organization.

Name of the organization	Employer identification number
The Cleveland Foundation	34 0714588

Core Form: Part VI, Line 15b:

The compensation of The Cleveland Foundation's CEO is set by the Board after review of comparable data regarding compensation paid by similar community foundations and charitable organizations for positions functionally comparable to the CEO of The Cleveland Foundation. The Board typically reviews both compensation data compiled by independent third party consultants as well as information compiled internally by the Foundation's Director of Human Resources. After review and discussion of the comparability data and evaluative information about how well the CEO achieved his and the Foundation's goals, the Board considers and sets the salary for the Foundation's CEO in executive session. The Board's decision is contemporaneously documented. The process to set the CEO's compensation was last undertaken in December 2008.

The compensation of other officers or key employees of The Cleveland Foundation is set using a similar process. Each year, the Foundation's Director of Human Resources compiles market data for the Foundation's officer and key employee positions (as well as for other classes of Foundation employees) and makes a recommendation to the Board Finance & Administration Committee for annual adjustments to the officers' and key employees' compensation (as well as the compensation for other classes of Foundation employees). The Committee considers and approves (or modifies and approves) the recommendations of the Director of Human Resources in executive session, taking into account in the case of officers and key employees evaluative information about their performance. This process to set compensation for officers and key employees was last undertaken in December 2008.

Core Form: Part VI, Line 19:

The Cleveland Foundation's audited financial statements and Form 990 are available on the Foundation's website. The Foundation's Forms 990 are also available on GuideStar. The Foundation advises interested members of the public on its website that they may obtain copies of the Foundation's conflict of interest policies for Directors, Officers, and staff by contacting the Foundation's Vice President for Corporate Governance and Administration, and the website provides the Vice President's phone number and a direct link to the Vice President's electronic mail address. The Foundation's website also directs interested members of the public to the appropriate senction of the Ohio Secretary of State for the most recent version of the Articles of Incorporation for the corporate components of the Foundation.
